

Міністерство освіти і науки України
Львівський Національний Університет Ветеринарної Медицини
та Біотехнологій імені С.З. Гжицького
Факультет економіки та менеджменту
Кафедра української та іноземних мов імені Якіма Яреми

Дзюбинська Х.А., Подоляк М.В

Lexical peculiarities of easily confused words for B 1 –B2 Level Students

Львів 2023

Методична рекомендація розроблена для студентів ФЕМ спеціальності “Менеджмент” та “Туризм” // Х.А. Дзюбинська., М. Подоляк - Львів, ЛНУВМБ імені С.З. Гжицького, 2023 – с.

Рецензент –Бінкевич О.М., старший викладач кафедри української та іноземних мов імені Якима Яреми Методична рекомендація “Lexical peculiarities of easily confused words for B1 level students” розроблено для студентів спеціальності “Менеджмент” та “Туризм” як додаткове джерело лексичного збагачення та можливості навчитися розрізняти та правильно використовувати слова, які часто плутаються, маючи схоже написання та зрозуміти відмінності між лексичними одиницями, котрі виступають як часткові синоніми.

Методичну рекомендацію розглянуто та затверджено на засіданні кафедри української та іноземних мов імені Якима Яреми № _____ від _____ 2023 р.

©Дзюбинська Х.А.,Подоляк М.В

©ЛНУВМ та БТ

ім.С.З. Гжицького

Read the definitions of the words, which are given below and fill in the correct one, trying to differentiate the exact meaning.

Bazaar-bizarre

* Bazaar - a marketplace or fair for the sale of goods.

* Bizarre - odd; eccentric; out of the ordinary.

The detective had a _____ habit of inviting suspects to dinner.

Multitudes of sights, sounds, and smells filled the _____r in the village square.

Affect - Effect

*Affect - verb meaning to influence.

* Effect - a noun meaning result.

While the student didn't see how studying _____ his test-taking, the positive _____soon became clear.

Lie – Lay

* Lie - a verb meaning to recline or rest on a surface.

* Lay - a verb meaning to put or place.

Before falling asleep, Kim _____ her bracelet on the table.

Kim ____ down to take a nap every day at 3:30 p.m.

Lose – Loose

*Lose - a verb meaning to misplace.

*Loose - an adjective meaning slack, moveable, or weak.

I always manage to _____ my glasses

My jeans are _____-fitting

Anyway - Any way

*Anyway – an adverb meaning regardless.

*Any way - a phrase meaning any manner or method.

We could take _____ we want to get to the party.

I don't want to go to the party, anyway _____.

Than - Then

*Than is a conjunction used to compare two things.

*Then is usually an adverb indicating time.

Do you think that Pepsi Cola is better _____ Coca Cola?

We went to the store, and _____ to a movie.

Who - Whom

*Who - a pronoun used as the subject of a sentence.

*Whom - a pronoun used as a direct object.

_____ - is responsible for the research on this group project?

We assigned research to _____ for this group project?

Accept - Except

*Accept - to agree to take something offered, to approve of or believe in something

*Except - not including, other than

"I've invited all my family to the wedding, _____ my cousins in Canada."

I think you should _____ the job offer."

Advice- Advise

Advice -an opinion about what to do in a particular situation

Advise - to tell someone what they should do (in your opinion)

"He gives _____ to students who want to study at university."

"The doctor _____ him to give up smoking and do more exercise."

Allusion- Illusion

*Allusion - an indirect reference to someone or something

* Illusion- an idea or belief that is false; ii) something that appears to be different from the way it really is

This comedy film makes numerous _____ to the behaviour of existing politicians.”

“She’s has the _____ that she doesn’t need qualifications to study at university.”

“Getting up early in the morning gives the _____ that the day is longer.”

Assistance- Assistants

*Assistance - the act of helping or supporting another person

*Assistants - a person who helps another person (e.g. a manager) to do their job

“We have so much work to do and not enough time. I think we need some _____”

“Charity shops rely on the voluntary _____ of the local community.”

Bare - Bear

*Bare -not covered or empty

*Bear - a large wild animal

“We need to get some pictures to decorate the _____ walls in our new house.”

“I heard that there is a new baby polar _____ at the zoo.”

Capital - Capitol

*Capital - the city in a country where the government is located

*Capitol - a building in the US where the government meets

“The _____ of the United Kingdom is London.”

“There are thousands of protestors outside the _____ building in Washington DC.”

Cereal - Serial

*Cereal - a food made from grain that is usually eaten for breakfast with milk

*Serial [- a television or radio programme that is divided into parts

““During our childhood, we always ate _____ before we went to school.”

I love this comedy _____ on TV at the moment.

Complement - Compliment

Complement - something that is a positive addition or combines well with something else

Compliment -an expression of praise or admiration

“He'd like us to give _____ on his new hairstyle, but it's awful!”

“Her unique skills will be an ideal _____ to the experience of the existing team.”

Desert - Dessert

Desert - an area of land that is very dry and has very few plants

Dessert - something that you eat after the main course of a meal

“The largest _____ in Africa is the Sahara.”

“Would you like to have a _____ or are you already full?”

Ensure - Insure

Ensure - to make certain that something happens

Insure - to pay money to protect against risks and losses (e.g. car insurance) or to issue someone with an insurance policy

“We need to _____ that our clients take the correct train to the airport on Saturday.”

“We should _____ our bicycles in case they get stolen in the city.”

Formally - Formerly

Formally - describes when something is done in an official way or in a polite manner

Formerly - describes something that happened or was true in the past

“He was _____ a policeman in London and then changed to a career in acting.”

“She _____ submitted a complaint about her manager's behaviour.”

Personal - Personnel

*Personal - describes something that belongs to or relates to an individual person

*Personnel- the people who work for a company or the department that deals with employees

“A lot of complaints have been made about the way this company treats its _____”

“He is very direct when he expresses his _____ opinion to friends and colleagues.”

Principal - Principle

*Principal - the person in charge of a school or who has the main role in a performance

*Principle - a rule or belief about what is right and wrong and influences your behavior

“The _____l has scheduled a presentation for new students and their parents.”

“We teach a set of _____ to children from their first day at school.”

Stationary - Stationery

*Stationary - not moving

*Stationery - pens, pencils, paper, envelopes etc.

“I need to buy some new _____-before I start university next week.”

“I'm going to be late for work. My train has been _____ for nearly an hour.”

Assure- Ensure - Insure

*Assure -to tell someone that something will definitely happen or is definitely true

Ensure - to guarantee or make sure of something Insure means to take out an insurance policy

Posey _____ Chester that no one would cheat at Bingo.

Posey was glad the Bingo hall was _____ against damage caused by rowdy Bingo players. Posey took steps to ensure that no one cheated at Bingo

Breath - Breathe

*Breath - a noun; it's the air that goes in and out of your lungs

*Breathe - a verb; it means to exhale or inhale

After Posey's spectacular landing, Chester had to remind himself to _____ - again.

Chester held his _____ while Posey skateboarded down the stairs.

Capital - Capitol

*Capital - has several meanings. It can refer to an uppercase letter, money, or a city where a seat of government is located:

*Capitol - the building where a legislature meets:

Chester visited Brasília, the _____ of Brazil.

Posey visited the cafe in the basement of _____ watching a bill become a law.

Complement - Compliment

*A complement - something that completes something else. It's often used to describe things that go

*A compliment - a nice thing to say:

Chester's lime green boots were a perfect _____ to his jacket.

:Posey received many _____ on her purple fedora.

Historic- Historical

*Historic -famous, important, and influential

*Historical - related to history

Posey donned a _____l bonnet for the renaissance fair.

Chester visited the beach in Kitty Hawk where the Wright brothers made their _____ first airplane flight

Lay - Lie

*To lay - to put or to place.

* To lie - to recline.

Chester will _____ down for a nap

Posey will _____ out her outfit before she goes to bed

Boy-Buoy

*boy - a male child.

*buoy - a floating marker in a lake, river, or ocean

In some cultures, _____s are preferred over girls.

When snorkeling or skin diving, a _____ should be anchored near the dive site to alert boaters to divers in the area.

Brake-Break

*to brake - to stop a vehicle.

*A brake - a device used to lock the wheels of a vehicle.

*To break - to smash something; to separate something into parts, often by force.

*A break - an intermission or recess from something

We will take a _____ - halfway through the class

He was not able to _____ - the car in time to avoid hitting the branch in the road.

If you step on that toy, it will surely _____.

Do you always set the emergency _____ on your car when parking on a hill?

Bridal-Bridle

* bridal -having to do with a bride or a wedding.

*bridle - the headgear worn by a horse by which the rider controls the animal.

Just before the race began, the jockey noticed his horse's _____ was broken.

The _____bouquet had roses and tulips in it.

Bus-Buss

* bus - a large, motorized vehicle usually used for public transportation

* buss - a kiss.

Group travel by _____is extremely popular today.

The tourists were greeted at the airport in Hawaii with a flower lei and a _____on the cheek.

Buy-By-Bye

* Buy - to purchase something; to hire or bribe someone, bye usually by a payment of money.

* Bye - an abbreviation of good-bye

* By - by means of someone or something; by way of something.

We will have to do it ____ hand. 0 Ms.

My money will _____ three hours of the plumber's time.

She is polite and always says _____when she leaves.

I want to _____ a new computer in the near future.

Smith seldom travels _____ highway if she can take a more scenic route.

Capital-Capitol-Capitol

*Capital - punishable by death.

*Capital – main, principal

*Capital - a city that serves as a seat of government.

• capitol - the building in which the legislature of a state meets.

- Capitol - the building in Washington, D.C., where the United States Congress meets.

The U.S. _____ is located on First Street between Constitution and Independence avenues.

The _____ of a state is not necessarily the state's largest city

The _____ of Michigan was designed by the same architect who designed the Texas capitol.

Murder in the first degree is a _____ offense in several states.

Our _____ concern was the welfare of the children.

Cell-Sell

*Cell - a small, lockable room or compartment.

The prisoner's _____ had none of the comforts of home.

*Cell - a small, microscopic unit of living matter.

Each student looked at his or her own skin _____ under the microscope.

*Sell - to offer something for sale; to exchange something for money. 0

Tom hopes to _____ his old car some day soon.

Cereal-Serial

*Cereal - a food made of grain and eaten for breakfast.

*Serial - in or of a series, rank, or order.

*Serial - a publication or program offered in segments at intervals.

A new automobile is stamped with a _____ number to aid in identification.

The new book will appear, in part, as a monthly _____ in that magazine.

The price of _____ in the supermarket has risen dramatically in the past two years.

Cite-Sight-Site

* Cite - to quote something from a published source.

* Sight - the ability to see.

* Sight -] a view or glimpse.

* Site - a position, place, or scene of something such as a town or building

The Grand Canyon is a magnificent _____

.The _____ for the new veterans memorial has not been chosen yet.

During his speech, the speaker will _____ the words of a famous politician.

The child's _____ improved greatly following eye surgery. ·

Climb-Clime

*Climb - to go or move up something.

*Clime- a climate.

Bonnie prefers a warm _____ to a cold one.

Be careful when you _____ the ladder.

The song's _____ to the top of the record charts was quick.

Complement-Compliment

*Complement - something that enhances or completes someone or something.

*Compliment - to express admiration or respect for something.

A fine red wine is a nice _____ for a meal including red meat.

"I'd like to _____ you on your fine achievements,

Continual-Continuous

• continual - on a regular or frequent basis.

• continuous - constantly; without an end.

Her continual _____-are annoying.

That machine 's _____-- knocking sound must be fixed.

Currant-Current

• currant - the small, berrylike fruit of several shrubs.

• current - up-to-date; presently acceptable

• current - the flow of something in a specific direction.

Be careful of the strong _____ in that river.

I ate almost every _____ I picked!

0 The man prides himself on his knowledge of _____t world events.

Cymbal - Symbol

- cymbal ['slmbl] a percussion instrument made of brass that produces a loud, crashing sound when struck with a stick or another cymbal. 0

- symbol ['slmb!] something that stands for something else by reason of association or resemblance. The dictator's face became a _____ of hatred to the oppressed people

To play the _____well, one must have perfect timing

Dear-Deer

- dear - highly valued; precious.

- dear - costly; expensive.

- dear [dlac] a loved one. (A term of address.)

- deer [dlac] a wild, swift-running animal having hooves and antlers in all males and the females of some species.

Now, my _____, what may I do for you ?

Each year, the same _____- munches on my father's garden.

My grandmother's antique locket is very _____to me.

For some people, the price paid for personal freedom is _____indeed.

Desert-Dessert

- desert - a hot, dry area of land, usually covered with sand.

- desert - to leave or abandon someone or something on purpose.

- *dessert - the last course of a meal, usually something sweet.

His favorite _____ is black walnut cake.

Rather than stay and fight, the soldiers chose instead to _____ their units.

There is hardly any life in the sands of the _____.

Dew-Do -Due

*dew - the moisture that condenses on a cool surface, usually during the night.

*do - to perform something; to carry something out.

*due - owed or owing as a debt, moral obligation, or right.

_____ your chores first, and then you 'll have plenty of time for other activities.

The electric bill is _____ on the 15th of each month.

As temperatures continue to drop, the _____ on the grass will soon become frost.

Die-Dye

*die - to cease to live.

*die - to decrease gradually; to stop.

*A die - a six-sided cube with varying numbers of dots on each side that is used in games.

*dye - to change the color of something.

With each roll of the _____ the man 's luck seemed to increase.

Everyone will notice if you _____ your blond hair black.

Certain insects die _____ a day or so after hatching.

I wish the wind would _____ down so I can rake these leaves.

Disinterested -Uninterested

- disinterested - free from personal motive or interest.

- uninterested - not interested.

The bored audience was obviously _____ in what the speaker was saying.

Let's ask a _____ third party to help settle this dispute.

Dual- Duel

*dual - two; double.

*duel - a confrontation between two armed combatants, usually to settle an argument.

Psychiatrists spend a good deal of time studying patients with _____ personalities.

A well-known _____ in American history involved Alexander Hamilton and Aaron Burr.

Elicit-Illicit

- elicit - to bring something out; to draw something forth.

Will you help me _____ support among your friends for this cause ?

- illicit - illegal; unlawful.

The _____ sale of drugs.

Eminent-Imminent

- eminent - noted for position, rank, or achievement.

- imminent - soon to happen or take place.

The _____ author won many Newbery Awards for his children 's books.

The prisoner on death row knew his execution was _____.

Ensure-Insure

- ensure - to guarantee something; to make certain of something.

- insure - to acquire or give insurance for; to make certain.

I will _____ your safe arrival at your destination.

Be sure to _____ your new motorcycle before driving it.

Fair-Fare

- fair - honest and impartial.

- * fair - blond or light complexioned.

- fair - clear

- fair - a competitive exhibition.

- * fair - a gathering of buyers and sellers.

- fare - the price charged to transport something or someone.

The computer fair was attended by people from all around the world.

The roundtrip _____ was less costly than buying two one-way tickets.

That judge is known for his _____ decisions.
Each year Mary's baked goods win blue ribbons at the _____.
The weather during our week-long vacation was _____ and warm.
Many Scandinavians are _____ and have blue eyes.

Feat-Feet

- feat [fit] a notable deed, especially one involving great skill or courage.
- feet [fit] the plural of foot 'the part of the body at the end of the leg.'

The circus elephant accomplished a most difficult _____.
The wobbly colt was barely able to stay on its _____ immediately after being born.

fir-fur

- *fir - a type of coniferous tree, such as the pine or evergreen.
- *fur - the hairy coat of an animal.

Sable pelts are a very valuable _____.
The Christmas tree we bought was a beautifully shaped _____.

flea-flee

- *flea [fli] a flightless, bloodsucking insect that feeds on warm-blooded animals.
- *flee [fli] to run away from danger.

The dog wears a special collar to protect it from _____ and other parasites.
The refugees had to _____ their war-torn nation.

formally-formerly

- * formally - carried out in a ceremonial fashion.
- *formerly- in times past.

Our neighbors were _____ stationed in Bangkok, Thailand, before being reassigned to San Diego, California.
The pioneering scientist will _____ receive her award in three months.

Forth-Fourth

- forth - onward or outward in time, place, or order.
- fourth - the ordinal number between third and fifth.
- fourth - one quarter of a whole.

The huge plane was _____ in line to take off on the runway.

Almost a _____ of her newly planted garden was eaten by rabbits.

Step _____ into the light where I can see you better.

Fenes-Jeans

• genes - the plural of gene 'the part of a chromosome that contains hereditary characteristics.'

• jeans - blue jeans; denim trousers of any color, constructed to resemble blue jeans. (

Almost every student wore _____ to the picnic.

_____ that determine brown eyes are dominant over genes that determine blue eyes.

Gild-Guild

* gild - to cover something with a thin layer of gold.

*guild [gIld] a group of people with common interests or aims.

The potter's _____ puts on a show and sale each year.

The goldsmith thought he should _____ the piece of jewelry to make it brighter and more attractive.

Grate-Great

• grate - an iron cradle used in stoves and fireplaces to hold what is to be burned.

• grate - to bother someone; to irritate someone's nerves.

• grate - to reduce something to pieces by rubbing it with something coarse.

• great - large; big.

- great - remarkable; famous; distinguished.

Her annoying habits _____ on my nerves.

Your loud voice _____ on me!

Sweep the ashes from under the _____ before you build another fire.

The salesman went to _____ lengths to please his customers.

_____ numbers of people appeared at the grand opening ceremony.

Let's _____ the cheese before putting it on the pizza.

Grill-Grille

- grill - a cooking surface on which food is exposed to direct heat.
- grill -to cook on a grill.
- grill - to question someone heatedly.
- grille -a lattice work; a grate that forms a barrier or screen of some type.

We will _____ the suspect until we arrive at the truth.

Ken damaged the _____ on the front of his new car when he hit the mailbox post.

Tom cooked our steaks on the _____.

I like to _____ hamburgers and hot dogs outside in the summertime.

Hail-Hale

- hail - rain frozen into balls of ice.
- hail [hel] to call for someone or something.
- hail - to come from some place.
- hale - healthy; sound.

You can _____ a cab from almost any hotel or restaurant in town.

Even at age ninety, our next-door neighbor is as _____ as he was twenty years ago.

_____ the size of golf balls pelted the spectators during the sudden cloudburst.

All of my college roommates _____ from the Midwest.

Hair-Hare

- hair - the external body covering of an animal;
- hare- a type of large rabbit known for its long ears and large hind legs.

The _____ circled around trying to put off the pursuing hounds.
Some animals grow thick coats of coarse _____ during long, harsh winters.

As a child, Mary had blond, curly _____.

Handmade-Handmaid

- handmade - made by hand, not machined. 0
- handmaid - a female servant or attendant.

The princess has a _____ to attend to her every whim.
As a housewarming gift, she gave the couple a _____-bed quilt.

Hart-Heart

- *hart - a mature male deer, especially of the red deer species.
- *heart - the muscular organ that maintains blood circulation.
- *heart - the center or most important part.
- *heart [ho3'-t] a playing card bearing red hearts.

The patient received a new _____ during the transplant surgery.

The _____ ran across the meadow.

I trumped his card with a higher _____.

Rather than skirt the issue, the council members wanted to get to the _____ of the matter.

Heal-Heel

- *heal - to cure something; to make something whole.
- *heel - the back of the human foot.

Bob bruised his _____ playing soccer.

It may take some time for that nasty cut to _____.

Heroin-Heroine

- heroin - a strongly addictive narcotic.

- heroine - a female hero

Mother Theresa is a _____ in most parts of the world.

Cocaine is now more widely used than _____.

Hoarse-Horse

- hoarse - harsh, grating, or rough in sound.
- horse - a four-legged animal with a flowing mane and tail.
- horse - a gymnastic apparatus consisting of a padded framework mounted on legs.

One of Steve's strongest events is the _____.

Following a bout with bronchitis, Tom 's voice was very _____.

The _____ I was given at the riding stable was a gentle mare.

Hole-Whole

- hole - a depression or opening.
- hole - a fault or flaw.
- whole - entire or unbroken.
- whole - the complete number or sum of something.

The _____ list had eleven chores on it.

The meteorite left a huge _____ in the earth when it hit the ground.

The burglar discovered a _____-in the security system of the building.

Let's look at the _____ picture.

Hostel-Hostile

- hostel - a supervised lodging provided for young people when traveling.
- hostile - antagonistic or unfriendly; relating to the enemy.

Joan is such a _____ person that none of her co-workers like her.

The college students met interesting people at each _____.

Humerus-Humorous

- humerus - the long, heavy bone of the upper arm or forelimb extending from the shoulder to the elbow.

- humorous - characterized by humor or wit.

The _____ of Jacob 's left arm was fractured when the scaffolding fell on him.

Generally there is a _____ side to any embarrassing situation.

in-inn

- in - inside; within; into.
- inn - a public lodging for travelers that usually provides food and drink.

The inn just outside the village provides comfortable beds and good food.

I would like to fly _____ the Concorde SST.

Please come _____ out of the rain.

incite-insight

*incite - to stir up or move someone or something to action.

*Insight - the ability to see or understand something intuitively.

Our physics teacher has great _____t into how to motivate uninterested students.

The speaker failed to _____the crowd to action.

jinks-jinx

*jinks - pranks.

*jinx - someone or something that brings bad luck or misfortune.

*jinx -to bring bad luck to someone.

Mary is so superstitious that she believes a passing black cat will _____her.

"I will not put up with any _____ while you 're here, " scolded Grandmother.

Eddie was _____ to our team 's winning streak.

knickers-nickers

- knickers - short, loose-fitting pants gathered at the knee.
- nickers - the plural of nicker 'the neigh or whinny of a horse.'

From the barn we could hear the impatient pony's nickers.

_____ were once the men 's fashion rage in golf knight-night

- knight - in feudal society, a man-at-arms serving a superior noble.
- knight - a chess piece, usually in the shape of a horse
- night - darkness.
- night -evening.

In chess, a _____ is a higher-ranking piece than a pawn.

The _____ in shining armor rescued the princess from the castle tower.

Last _____ I spotted a shooting star in the sky.

Nocturnal animals are able to see at _____ knit-nit

- knit - to interlace yarn or thread in a series of connected loops using needles.
- knit - to form, tie, or link something closely together.
- nit - a young, parasitic insect or the egg of a young, parasitic insect.

The new trade agreement will _____ the nations.

Head lice are a type of _____ Mom always liked to _____ rather than crochet.

knot-naught-not

- knot - an interlacing of string, twine, or rope.
- knot [not] a hard-to-solve problem or dilemma.
- knot [not] a bond of union, especially marriage. (Always in the idiom tie the knot.) 0 The couple has finally decided to tie the knot.
- naught - nothing. (Typically with for.)
- not - a word indicating no or negation.

All his hard work was for _____

I was unable to untangle the _____ in my fishing line.

We are _____ hungry at the moment.

That issue put a _____ in the discussion.

ladder-latter

*ladder - a structure of two vertical side poles and numerous horizontal rungs that is used for climbing up and down.

*latter - referring to the second of two things mentioned.

* latter - the last; the end.

In the _____ stages of the conflict, the war-weary soldiers wanted to give up.

Jake refuses to walk underneath any _____ .

Though Lindsay and Marina are both smart, the _____ is the better student.

lay-lei -lie

- lay [Ie] to place or set someone or something down.

- lay [Ie] to impose as an obligation, reproach, burden, or punishment.

- lay - to plan or conceive something.

- lay [down] - the past tense of lie [down] 'to rest or recline in a horizontal position.'

- lay [Ie] the past tense of lie 'to occupy a place; to be situated some place.

- lei - a wreath or necklace of flowers or similar material.

- lie - to rest or recline in a horizontal position.

He _____ down to rest and fell asleep.

The flight attendant placed a _____ around Mary's neck when her plane arrived in Hawaii.

_____ the tools on the workbench.

At one time those two old sheds _____ near the main barn.

Let's _____ a plan to make the police think we have disappeared..

The government will _____ a heavy tax on those imports.

lean-lien

- lean - having little or no fat.
- lean - to rely upon someone or something for support.
- lean [lin] to bend from a vertical position.
- lean [lin] to incline toward something in opinion, taste, or desire.
- lien - a legal charge upon personal property to offset or satisfy some debt or duty.

My taste in clothing tends to _____ toward classic styles.

The circus performer was _____.

The _____ on our neighbor's farm must be settled before the bank will approve a new loan.

Since Sally is almost deaf, she must _____ forward to listen when someone speaks.

It's nice to have someone to _____-on in times of trouble.

lessen -lesson

- lessen - to reduce something in size, number, or degree.
Aspirin will _____ the pain of your toothache.
 - lesson ['IEs;)n] a piece of instruction or something to be learned, especially by a student. 0 Today's lesson dealt with right triangles.
 - lesson ['IEs;)n] a rebuke. 0 That incident taught us an important lesson about honesty.
 - lesson ['IEs;)n] a portion of sacred writing read during a worship service. 0 "Our lesson for this day is from the book of Acts," announced the minister.
- lesson See the main entry beginning with lessen.

loan-lone

- loan - something given for a borrower's temporary use.
The buyer decided not to apply for a _____ to buy the new lawn tractor
- lone - alone, sole, only, isolated.
The _____ Canada goose flew across the darkening sky.

loath-loathe

• loath [108] reluctant; unwilling. D I am loath to sit next to that obnoxious person for even one more minute locks-lox

• locks - the plural of lock 'a security device operated by a key, combination, or electrical circuit and used to restrict entrance to or exit from a place.'

• locks - the plural of lock 'a tress of hair; a group of human hairs.

• locks - the present tense, third person singular of lock to fasten, join, or hold something together.

• lox - smoked salmon.

A computer automatically _____ the gates in the prison.

As a safety measure, Sam had the _____ on all of the doors changed.

Her favorite items on the buffet table are the _____ and bagels.

Her golden _____ were the envy of all of her friends.

made-maid

• made - the past tense and past participle of make - to create something; to manufacture something.

• made [up] [med] the past tense and past participle of make [up} 'to invent a story.'

• maid - a female servant.

• maid - a young, unmarried girl or woman. (Used only in older stories and fairy tales.)

A lovely maid _____-captured the young king's heart.

She _____ _ a story that was too silly to believe.

Those lanterns were ____ in Hong Kong.

Mrs. Smith 's _____ gets every other weekend off.

mare-mayor

* mare - a female horse, donkey, or mule, especially one of breeding age.

*mare - a supernatural being that causes nightmares.

*mare - a large, dark patch on the surface of Mars or the moon.

The _____ on the full moon 's surface was visible with the naked eye.

She dreamed that an evil ___ flew into her bedroom.

The horse that caught the judges ' eyes was a flashy _____ with spirit.

marry-merry

• marry - to join two people in matrimony as husband and wife.

• marry - to take someone as a spouse.

• marry - to unite two things in a close relationship.

• merry - jovial, lighthearted, or festive.

The priest will _____ the couple on Friday evening.

The merger will _____ two of the largest airlines in the world.

Everyone attending the festival had a _____ time.

John will _____ Ellen when he finishes college.

meat-meet-mete

*meat - the flesh of an animal used as food.

*meat - the edible part of a fruit, nut, or vegetable.

* meet - to approach or come into contact or the presence of someone or something.

* meet - to settle with or pay something in full.

John cannot _____ this month 's bills because of his recent illness.

*meet - a gathering for some specific activity or competition.

*mete - to assign or allot something by measure.

Grandfather always liked _____ and potatoes for Sunday dinner.

Chris won the two-mile event in last week 's track _____.

They agreed to _____ for lunch at noon.

Her mother does not like to ____ out punishment for the children 's misbehavior.

We 'll only use the _____ of ripe nuts for the pecan pie.

miner-minor

- miner - a person who mines.
- minor - a person who is under legal age.
- minor - unimportant; inferior in degree, status, number, or size.
- minor - an academic subject requiring fewer courses to earn a degree than a major.
- minor - a musical key.

Like his father and grandfather before him, Dave is a _____ in the Pennsylvania coal mines.

It is illegal to sell alcohol and tobacco products to a _____.

Peter has a major in American literature and a ____ in social studies.

Play the recital piece in _____.

Linda was disappointed that she received only a _____ part in the play.

moan-mown

* moan - a wail; a groan.

*mown - the past participle of mow 'to cut down standing grass or weeds.' (Also mowed.)

*mown [down] - the past participle of mow [down] 'to kill or destroy people in large numbers without mercy;

Even after I had ____ the grass, dandelions appeared everywhere.

The artillery had ____ down all opposition in a matter of minutes.

The accident victim uttered a _____ when the rescue workers lifted her onto the stretcher moose-mousse

- moose - a large grass-eating mammal that belongs to the deer family and lives in forested parts of North America.

- mousse - an airy, sweet dessert made of gelatin and whipped cream.

Our hostess served raspberry ____ for dessert.

While driving along a Canadian highway, we spotted a ____ and her calf drinking from a lake.

morning-mourning

- morning - the part of the day from midnight or dawn until noon.
- mourning - the present participle of mourn 'to express grief and sorrow about something, such as a person's death.'
- mourning - a period of grief following a death.

_____ clothes are traditionally black.

He prefers to jog early in the _____ when it's cooler.

The widow continues to wear black to show that she is still in mourning.

naval-navel

- naval - involving or relating to ships, shipping, or a navy.
- navel - a depression or scar in the center of the abdomen where the umbilical cord was once attached.
- navel - a particular variety of orange.

The belly dancer wore a gemstone in her _____ as part of her costume

There is no orange sweeter than a large, juicy _____.

While on vacation, we visited the _____ facility at Pearl Harbor on Oahu, Hawaii.

nay-neigh

- nay - a negative reply or vote; a person who votes no.
- nay [ne] not only this but also. (Formal, stilted, or jocular.)
- neigh - the loud, long utterance of a horse, donkey, or mule.
- neigh [ne] to make the utterance of a donkey, horse, or mule.

Our donkey will _____ if he hears a loud, piercing noise.
We could hear the wild horse's neigh across the wide valley.
When the vote was tallied, there were four yeas and one ____.
" _____, there were other misdeeds committed by this individual, "
continued the speaker.

overdo-overdue

*overdo- to do or use something to excess.

*overdue - delayed beyond an appointed time.

My library books are always _____ by the time I return them.

*overdue - remaining unpaid when due to be paid.

Carol's baby was three weeks _____.

Don't try to _____ things on your first day home from the hospital

Last month's mortgage payment is _____.

overseas-oversees

• overseas - across or beyond the sea.

• oversees - the present tense, third person singular of oversee 'to supervise someone or something.'

The office manager oversees the work of all of the clerical and support staff _____

The journalist's next assignment will be somewhere _____.

pail-pale

• pail - a bucket or other container equipped with a handle and used to carry liquids.

• pale- light skin.

• pale - not bright or brilliant.

• pale [pel] to become less important.

She painted the room a _____ shade of yellow.

All of the other girls _____ in comparison to Rosa's great beauty.

Our cow kicked over a full _____ of milk.

We knew Henry didn 't feel well when he suddenly became very _____.

pain-pane

- pain - distress; suffering; discomfort.
- pain - to cause someone or something to feel pain.
- pain - to cause oneself or another trouble or exertion.
- pane - a framed piece of glass found in windows and doors.

The ____ became so unbearable that Emily finally agreed to see a doctor.

During the furious storm, a _____ of glass blew out of the large picture window.

It will _____us to see you move so far away.

Do not _____ yourself to stand up when you feel so ill.

pair-pare-pear

- pair - two corresponding things designed to be used together; two associated or similar things.
- pair - two sweethearts.
- pair - two playing cards of the same value or denomination.
- pair - to set or arrange something in groups of two.
- pare - to peel or remove the skin or covering from something; to cut something away.
- pear - a fleshy, somewhat gritty fruit of a tree belonging to the rose family.

Will you please _____ the potatoes for dinner?

The graduates will _____ up to march into the auditorium.

Now what have I done with that _____ of socks ?

That young _____will probably marry someday.

The _____was juicy and tasty.

All she had was a _____of kings in her hand.

patience-patients

* patience - having the capacity to be steadfast, calm, or uncomplaining.

*patients - the plural of patient 'a person undergoing medical treatment.

The doctor treats all of her _____ with care and interest.

Kindergarten teachers must have a great deal of _____.

pause-paws

*pause- a temporary break or stop.

*pause - to stop or linger for a time.

*paws - the plural of paw 'the foot of some warm-blooded terrestrial animal having claws.'

*paws the present tense, third person singular of paw 'to touch someone rudely or amorously.'

* paws - the present tense, third person singular of paw 'to grab at something repeatedly.'

* paws - the present tense, third person singular of paw to bat or hit at something with a paw.'

Let's _____ at the fountain and toss in a coin.

Henry, it seems, _____ every girl who goes out with him.

Each time the cat catches a mouse, it _____ its victim pitilessly.

After a brief _____, the speaker continued.

A lynx has huge _____.

The inexperienced mountain climber _____ the air wildly each time he loses his footing.

peace-piece

*peace - a state of security, tranquility, or order between individuals, groups, or countries.

• peace - a freedom from mental or emotional upheaval.

• peace- quiet; silence.

• piece - a portion of a whole.

- piece - an artistic or literary composition.
- piece - something regarded as an example of a unit of a kind or class.
- piece - to patch someone or something together; to complete something by adding pieces.
- piece - a handgun; a revolver. (Police and underworld slang.)

His cabin in the woods offers him a haven of _____.

With five children in the house, the harried housewife has no _____.

The composer's _____ for the piano won the competition.

A war-torn nation knows no _____.

The robber carried his _____ in a shoulder holster.

It was difficult to _____ together the jigsaw puzzle

May I please have the last _____ of pie ?

Mary does a _____ - of work at a time at the garment factory.

peak-peek-pique

- peak - a prominent, pointed top or end of something.
- peak - the highest level; the greatest degree.
- peak - to reach a summit or maximum of something.
- peek - to glance secretly at something or someone.
- peek - to take a brief look at someone or something.
- pique- a fit of irritation or resentment.
- pique - to arouse anger or resentment.

The physical condition of the racehorse should _____ around the date of the race.

Try not to _____ his wrath by upsetting him.

In a _____ of anger, the child broke her favorite toy.

Out of curiosity she wanted to _____ at every room in the house.

The mountain _____ was covered with snow.

Children are sometimes tempted to _____ at their birthday presents.

He reached the _____ of his music career at age thirty.

peal-peel

- peal - a loud ringing of bells, especially church bells.
- peal - a loud sound or succession of sounds.
- peel - to remove or strip off an outer layer of something.
- peel - to remove clothing from a body.
- peel - the skin or rind of a fruit.

I had to _____ the apples before I could make the cobbler.

Her _____ of laughter was heard throughout the house.

The orange _____ was easy to remove.

Every Sunday morning the _____ of the church bell summons people to worship.

Let's peel off those wet clothes before you get a chill.

pedal-peddle-petal

- pedal - a foot-operated lever.
- pedal - to move or propel something by foot, especially a bicycle.
- peddle - to seek to distribute something; to deal out something.

- petal - a colorful segment of a flower's blossom.

Since you can 't go to the football game, why don 't you try to _____ your tickets at work ?

The _____ of the orchid is an unusual color.

Let's _____ up to the corner drugstore for an ice-cream cone tricycle.

The gas _____ on her car got stuck.

peer-pier

- peer _____ of equal standing with another.
- peer - a companion, friend, or age-mate.
- peer [pIa'] to look carefully or curiously at something not easily discernible.
- pier - a vertical support between two openings.
- pier - a structural landing place extending into water.

Fishermen can be seen fishing off the _____ at any time of day.

A _____ jury will decide the fate of the accused woman.
The students will join their _____ after school for a game of soccer.
To enlarge the room, we 'll remove the center _____.
If you _____r through a beach telescope in Key West, you might be able to see Cuba.

pistil-pistol

* pistil - the part of a seed plant that bears the ovule needed for reproduction.

*pistol - a small, hand-held firearm.

She keeps a licensed _____ for personal protection.

On some flowers the _____ is more noticeable than on others.

plain-plane

*plain [plen] simple; unadorned.

*plain - common; ordinary.

*plain - evident.

*plain- an extensive, unbroken expanse of flat or rolling treeless countryside.

*plane - a tool used for smoothing or shaving a wood surface.

She has rather _____ features.

It was _____that Kevin would not change his mind.

The craftsman used a small _____ for his detail work.

The house is very _____both inside and out.

The empty _____ looks bare and unwelcoming.

pleas-please

• plane- to make something even, level, or smooth.

• plane - a flat or level surface.

• plane - an airplane. • plane - to skim across the water or soar on the wind.

Passengers should board the _____ through gate six.

I'll _____ the tabletop before sanding and restraining it.

The sailboats _____ across the bay easily on windy days
That piece of equipment must rest on a _____ so it doesn't tip over.

plait-plate

- plait - a braid made of hair, straw, or some other material.
- plate - a flat, smooth, thin piece of material.
- plate - a piece of table service.
- plate - a thin layer of a precious metal, usually gold or silver.
- plate - to cover or coat something with some kind of metal.
- plate - a partial denture fitting.

He wears a small upper plate _____.

Her long hair was arranged in an elaborate _____ - for the celebration.

The serving tray had a silver _____.

The surgeon placed a small steel _____ in his patient's head during the operation.

Please do not use the cracked _____ when we have guests for dinner.

The jeweler will _____ the inexpensive metal ring with gold to make it look shiny.

pole-Pole-poll

- pole - a long, slender shaft.
- pole - either extremity of an axis of a sphere.
- pole - either of two opposites.
- Pole - a person of the Polish nationality.
- poll - the casting and recording of votes by a body of persons.
- poll - to question or canvass people randomly.

Neither _____ of the planet Earth is inhabited by people.

Edgar's father was a _____ and his mother a Swede.

Some voters do not admit in an exit _____ how they really voted.

His opinion on the subject takes the opposite _____ from his best friend's.

A _____ is used to reach the apples in the tops of the trees.

The final results of the _____ show that neither candidate won a majority of the votes.

poor-pore-pour

- * poor - having few material possessions.
- * poor - inferior in value or quality.
- * poor - eliciting pity or sympathy.
- * poor - unproductive; fruitless.
- * pore - a tiny opening in the surface of a membrane through which materials pass.
- * pore - to read or study something attentively.
- * pore - to reflect on or ponder something.
- * pour - to cause something to flow steadily.
- * pour - to produce something freely in large supply or quantity.
- * pour - to rain hard.

I feel sorry for _____ Betsy with all of her troubles.

Mark used to _____ over any book dealing with jets.

The weatherman said it will _____ for the next three days.

An old pickup truck is a _____ substitute for a luxury car when it comes to driving comfort.

Let me _____ over your suggestion before making a decision.

As a child, he was very _____.

_____ the milk slowly so you don't spill it.

This year's corn crop was very _____.

Most parents _____ love and affection onto their children.

An infected skin _____ can be painful.

precedent-president

- precedent - an example, rule, or judgment that may later serve as a basis for decisions in similar cases.
- precedent - a prior occurrence of a similar type that provides an example.

• president - any presiding officer of an organization; a chief official or executive; a chief of state.

The teacher's behavior set a _____ for her student's behavior.

In the United States, a _____ is elected every four years.

In this judicial case, there is no _____ indicating how the problem might be handled.

principal-principle

• principal - most important or influential.

• principal - the authoritative person in control, usually of a school.

• principal - a sum of money that is loaned and upon which interest is paid and repayment is due; the main part of an estate.

• principle - a fundamental rule, law, or code of conduct.

• principle - the underlying facts of operation of nature.

Ms. Brown will be the new _____ of the school.

This new invention is based on the _____ of gravity.

One of the _____ characters in the story is a stray dog.

Our system of justice is based on the _____-of equality.

The couple made monthly payments on the _____ - of their car loan profit-prophet

• profit - a gain or return over and above an expenditure.

• profit - to benefit or gain from something.

• prophet - a person who tells of divinely inspired revelations or predicts the future.

• prophet - a spokesperson for a cause or group.

In order for any progress to be made, a strong _____ for the cause needs to emerge.

Isaiah was a _____ in biblical times.

If you buy those stocks now, you stand to earn a nice _____ in the future.

We will all _____ from our hard work.

rabbet-rabbit

- rabbet - a groove cut into a surface and designed to be fitted with a corresponding member to form a joint.

- rabbet - to cut or fit a groove.

- rabbit -a small, long-eared mammal belonging to the hare family.

We need to _____ this surface in order to get a good fit.

Sally plans to show her _____ at the fair this summer.

Carpenters will often use a _____ to join two pieces of wood neatly.

rain-reign-rein

- rain - falling precipitation in the form of droplets.

- rain - to fall or pour down on someone or something like rain.

- reign- to possess or exercise power or authority over someone or something.

reign - to predominate or rule over someone or something.

reign - the period of influence of a monarch or sovereign.

rein- a check line on either side of a bridle or halter that is used to control an animal.

- rein - complete freedom.

Sometimes monarchs _____ over their subjects for decades.

Some parents give free _____.

The cool, refreshing _____ was a relief after the hot, windy day.

The queen 's _____ was marred by much violence.

Pull back on the bridle _____ to get control of the horse.

Insult after insult continued to _____ down on the unpopular speaker.

Our bosses _____ over everyone in the company.

rap-wrap

- rap -] a sharp knock or blow.

- rap -a criticism; a rebuke.

- rap - to arrest, retain, or charge with criminal action. (Police or underworld slang.)

- rap - to perform in a rhythmic, musical style by the same name in which lyrics are spoken to a steady background beat rather than sung.
- wrap - to enclose or bundle something or someone by enfolding or covering; to embrace someone or something.
- wrap [up] [rrep] to completely immerse or involve someone in something.
- wrap - an outer garment, similar to a cloak, that wraps around the body.

Her _____ was a simple woolen shawl.

I heard a _____ on the door.

Let's wrap__ ourselves in these warm blankets.

The police plan to _____ the suspect with the recent crimes.

Some people _____ themselves up completely in their work.

Many high school students learn to _____ after school.

The man offered a stinging ____ to his opponent's comments.

read-reed

- read - to understand or utter aloud written or printed matter.
- read - to interpret the meaning of someone or something.
- read - to predict or foretell something.
- reed - a tall, slender grass, usually found growing in marshy areas.
- reed [rid] a thin, flexible slat of wood or cane fixed to the end of the mouthpiece of some musical instruments.

How do you _____ the sudden change in John 's behavior ?

The stem of a _____ is hollow. \

The saxophone and clarinet are two instruments that require a _____ to produce sound.

Most children learn to _____ in first or second grade.

Astrologers claim to _____ the future by studying the stars.

recede-reseed

- recede - to draw or pull back or away from something.
- recede - to decrease.
- reseed - to sow seed again.

His financial debt finally began to _____.
After the heavy rain, we had to _____ the garden.
After two days at flood level, the river began to _____ wheat field. 0 Some fields naturally reseed themselves.

receipt-reseat

- receipt - the act of receiving.
- receipt - a written acknowledgement of items or goods received.
- receipt - to mark something as paid.
- reseat - to seat someone again.
- reseat - to repair or replace the seat of something.

It will be necessary to _____ four of the antique chairs we purchased at the auction.

Bring your _____ if you must return an item to the store.

The ushers were asked to _____ the audience following the false fire alarm.

I will _____ the invoice when I receive the payment.

You will be paid upon the _____ of the signed contract.

rest-wrest

- rest - to repose in sleep or relaxation.
- rest - a place for resting or lodging.
- rest - to bring something to an end.
- rest - remains; leftovers.
- rest - a rhythmic silence in music.
- wrest – to take something or someone forcibly; to gain something with difficulty.
- wrest - to change the significance or truth of something.

The prince was unable to _____ power from the king

Let's just let that unlikely idea _____.

My aunt's cat uses her mantle as _____

Put the _____ of the food in the refrigerator.

Joan tends to _____ the truth when making excuses for herself

I think I'll _____ after that vigorous walk.

The drummer ignored the _____ and continued playing.

right-rite-wright-write

- right - correct; appropriate.
- right [- righteous.
- right - genuine.
- right - to justify or change something that is wrong.
- right - a direction that is opposite of left.
- rite - ceremony; a precise manner of carrying out a ceremonial tradition.
- wright - someone who makes or repairs certain things. (Usually seen in compounds such as wheelwright and shipwright.)
- write - to draw up, author, or compose something in writing.

He is a _____ and honorable man.

The author hopes to _____ a biography about that famous sculptor.

The priest will perform the _____ of baptism at the church this morning.

Please wear the _____ type of clothing on the camping trip.

Grandpa looked all over the county for a wheel _____

Make sure the antiques you purchase are _____ and are not reproductions.

It is too late to _____ the damage that has been done.

Turn _____ at the next traffic light.

roe-row

- roe - the eggs of fish.
- row - to propel a boat by using oars.
- row - to form something into rows.
- row - a number of objects in a sequence or series.

Be careful how you _____ the vegetable plants in the garden.

If you don 't want to _____, we can use the outboard motor.

Each _____ of desks was neatly aligned in the classroom.

The _____ of sturgeon is known as camar.

role-roll

- role -] a part played by a singer or actor.
 - role - a function.
 - roll - a scroll.
 - roll - a list of names.
 - roll - something formed into the shape of a roll.
 - roll - to cause someone or something to move forward by turning over and over.
 - roll - to rob a person by pilfering his or her pockets.
- We 'll never know for sure what ____ he played in the discovery.
Someone entered the dormitory room and tried to _____ the occupants while they slept.
Her ____ in the play was a minor one.
Jessie had a _____ of dollar bills in his pocket.
Before we begin, let me call _____.
The messenger handed the _____ to the king.
It is easier to _____ an object down a hill than to carry it.

rude-rued

- rude - lacking refinement or tact; offensive in action or manner.
 - rued [rud] the past tense and past participle of rue 'to feel sorrow or regret about something. ' (Almost always in the expression rue the day.)
- As a lonely millionaire, John _____ the day he wished for fame and fortune.
His supervisor is a _____ person.

rye -wry

- rye - a hardy grain used for cereal or grown for cover.
 - wry - cleverly humorous, often with a grim or ironic twist.
 - wry - made with facial contortions.
- His _____ smile made me suspicious.
Most of the farmland is planted in barley and _____.

Tom has a _____sense of humor.

sac-sack

- sac - a pouch containing fluid inside a plant or animal.
- sack - a container made of paper or other material that is used to carry items.
- sack - a loose-fitting style of coat or dress.
- sack - dismissal.
- sack - to plunder or loot something after capture.
- sack - to put something into a sack.
- sack - to fire or let someone go.

Most employers don 't like to _____-faithful workers in bad times.

The soldiers continued to _____ the city for days.

Will you help me _____ these groceries ?

After working for the company for ten years, his _____ was totally unexpected.

I carried my groceries home in a _____

Will you help me _____ these groceries ?

Among seahorses, the male carries the egg _____ containing the young.

The _____ was once a very popular dress style.

saver-savor

- saver - a person who collects and keeps something.
- saver - a person who rescues someone or something from harm.
- savor – to relish or delight in something.
- savor - to smell or taste something with great pleasure.
- savor - a distinctive smell or flavor.

Vintage wine has a unique _____ - all its own.

Bernice is a compulsive _____ of food coupons.

Mary likes to _____ - her first cup of coffee of the morning.

The smell of the first campfire of the season is an odor to _____.

Smith is known as a _____-of lost or injured animals.

sea-see

- sea - the body of saltwater covering most of the earth's Surface
- see - to visualize something or someone.
- see - to understand something.
- see - to examine or watch someone or something.
- see - to escort or accompany someone or something to some place.

The boys promised to _____ their dates home.

Not all fish can live in _____

I can _____ trouble brewing.

Wait and _____ what develops.

Susan did not _____ the point he was trying to make.

scull-skull

- scull - a type of oar used at the stern or back of a boat to move it forward.
- scull - a racing boat propelled by sculls.
- scull - to propel a boat using a scull or large oar.
- skull - the skeleton of the head of a vertebrate that encloses and protects the brain.
- skull - a mind.

A great deal of strength is needed to man a racing _____

Workmen uncovered the _____ of a large mammal at the building site.

Try to get this message into your _____.

The _____ accidentally fell into the water.

The plan was to _____ the vessel rather than use its motor.

serf-surf

- serf - a member of the peasant class bound to the land and subject to the will of the owner or overseer in a feudal society.
- surf - the swell, foam, splash, or sound of breaking waves upon a shore.
- surf - to ride the waves.

Curt learned to _____ while visiting relatives in California.
Each _____ was allowed to keep a portion of the crops he grew.
The sound of the _____ lulled me to sleep.

set-sit

- set - to place something onto something.
- sit - to rest on one's buttocks, as in a chair.

Please _____ over there.

Would you please ____ - this vase on the mantel?

Soar- sore

- soar - to sail or fly high and unencumbered.
- soar - to move upward in status or position.
- sore - an open, often infected wound.

sore - to be painfully sensitive.

sore - a source of irritation or pain.

sore - vexed or angered

The actor's popularity began to _____ with the release of his first movie.

You should put some salve on that ____.

I wonder what it is like to _____ in a glider plane.

Any discussion of his past was a _____ for him.

My back is _____ today for some reason.

Don't be a _____ - loser

sole-soul

sole - the bottom part of a foot or shoe.

sole - the lower part or base of something on which something else rests.

sole - to furnish something with the lower part or base of something.

sole - a tasty, white-fleshed fish.

sole - only; lone.

soul - the spiritual part of a human being.

Fred felt that his _____ would live on after his death.

I have a cut on the _____ of my foot.

He couldn't decide whether to order the shrimp or the _____ on the menu.

The _____ of her golf club has been damaged.

The _____ judge in the case found the defendant not guilty.

The cobbler will _____ a pair of shoes for only eight dollars.

son-sun

- son - a male offspring of human beings.
- sun- a warmth-providing celestial body around which the Earth and other planets revolve.
- sun - the light or heat given off from the sun.
- sun - something resembling the sun's brilliance.

The lawyer had her moment in the _____ when she won the famous court case.

In Scotland it is considered lucky to be the seventh _____ - of a seventh son.

I remember seeing a total eclipse of the _____ once as a child.

The bright _____ seemed to lighten our spirits.

stationary -stationery

- stationary - not moving; unchanging in place or condition.
- stationery - letter-writing materials such as ink, pen, paper, and envelopes.

Dad went into the store to buy some _____ items.

The weatherman said a _____ storm front had settled over the region.

I have several pretty styles of _____.

suite-sweet

- suite - a group of rooms occupied as a single unit.
- suite - the collection of personnel accompanying a dignitary or ruler on official business.

• suite - a musical composition with a number of movements, usually in the same key.

• sweet - pleasing to the taste, mind, or feelings.

• sweet - dearest; much beloved.

• sweet - great; terrific.

Winning the tournament was such a _____ experience.

The only vacancy in the hotel was a large _____.

The child's _____ temperament was the opposite of her twin sister's.

The king's entire _____ traveled with him wherever he went.

The audience applauded after the orchestra played the _____ - of ballet music.

"Marry me, my _____-, "

tail-tale

• tail - an extension of the spine at the rear end of an animal, usually covered with hair.

• tail - the end or final process of something.

•tail - to follow behind or trail something or someone.

• tail - to follow someone in order to conduct surveillance.

• tale -] an untrue report or piece of gossip.

• tale - a story.

• tale - a lie.

Streams of exhaust _____ the jets through the sky.

She fooled no one with her _____ of what happened.

We were all glad to see the _____ end of the project in sight.

We could not believe her _____.

The detective decided to _____ the suspect all night long.

She read the _____ with much expression.

My dog has a short, stubby _____.

tare-tear

(See also tear- tier.)

• tare - a weedy plant often used as ground cover.

- tare - the calculation of the weight of a substance and its container minus the weight of the container.
- tear - a hole or flaw caused by tearing.
- tear - to separate or pull something into parts.
- tear - to remove or wrench something from someone or something forcibly.
- tear - to move or act hastily or violently.

Your cost will be figured by the _____ of the liquid.

The speeding car continued to ____ down the street in a dangerous manner.

He could not ____ himself away from the interesting novel.

Many gardeners use a _____ to keep the soil from eroding.

We need to _____ this paper into long strips.

Did you know this shirt has a _____ in it?

thyme-time

- thyme - an aromatic garden herb that belongs to the mint family and is used in cooking.
- time - the period during which something occurs.
- time - an appointed moment or hour when something should happen.
- time - a tempo, rhythm, or beat.
- time- a geological or historical age.
- time - an experience.
- time - to keep the time of something or someone.

Jody was asked to ____ the swimmers at the swim meet.

The recipe calls for one-half teaspoon of _____.

The drummer kept _____ with the other musicians.

We had a wonderful _____ on our vacation.

At what _____ do you expect to be home ?

I never seem to have enough _____ to do my chores.

There was a _____ when dinosaurs roamed the earth.

tic-tick

- tic -] a frequent, localized twitch, usually involving facial muscles.
- tick - a bloodsucking insect that is dependent upon a warm-blooded host for survival and often spreads disease.
- tick - a soft, rhythmic beat often associated with timepieces.
- tick - a light mark used as an indicator.
- tick - a straw, feather, or fabric-filled case used as a mattress.
- tick -to make a ticking sound.

Those clocks all _____ in different tones.

The common deer _____ is responsible for spreading Lyme disease.

Put a _____ next to each item on the invoice.

His awful experiences during the war left the soldier with a nervous _____.

The loud _____ of the clock kept Joe awake at night.

This sleeping _____ is not very comfortable.

tide-tied

• tide -a rising and falling of the surface of an ocean, sea, or gulf, influenced by the gravitational pull of the sun and moon.

• tide - something that fluctuates like the tide.

• tied - the past tense and past participle of tie 'to make a knot or bow. '

• tied [together] - the past tense and past participle of tie [together] 'to unite two or more people or things.'

The two corporations _____ together to form one company.

Do not go swimming at high _____.

The child _____ his shoelaces all by himself

The _____ of her mood swings is unpredictable.

tray-trey

• tray - a flat-surfaced, open receptacle, often without sides or with shallow sides, used for carrying or displaying articles.

• trey [tre] a card, die, or domino displaying three symbols or dots.

His poker hand revealed two pairs and a _____.
Grandmother's silver tea service sits on a _____ in the china cabinet.

troop-troupe

- troop - a group of soldiers.
- troop - a collection of objects or people.
- troop - a flock of birds; an assembly of mammals.
- troop - a unit of Girl or Boy Scouts under the direction of a leader.
- troupe - a group of stage or traveling performers.

An interested _____ of listeners heard the speaker talk.

That theatrical _____ has been on the road performing for a long time.

When my brothers were young, my father served two as leader of their _____.

The small _____ entered the city after dark.

A baboon _____ is a highly organized and complex unit.

undo-undue

- undo - to open or unfasten something by releasing.
- undo - to nullify something.
- undo - to ruin or reverse the fortunes of someone or something.
- undue - unnecessary or inappropriate.
- undue - not due.

He could not _____ the damage done to his garden by the heavy rain.

The bill is undue until the end of the month.

I was unable to _____ the padlock on the gate.

The political candidate thought _____ attention was being given to his private life.

The athlete tried to undo his competitor's chances of winning

vail-vale-veil

- vail - to remove one's hat to show respect. (Archaic English.)
- vale - a valley; a dale.

- veil - a covering of cloth worn to conceal the face.
- veil - a covering used to conceal or hide something.
- veil - to conceal something.

The man tried to ____ his uneasiness by laughing.

From the mountaintop the little hamlet nestled in the ____ looked like a miniature village.

The bride's ____ was made of white netting.

The peasant was told to ____ his hat in the presence of the noble family.

Women in some countries are required to wear a ____ when in public.

A ____ was used to cover the sculpture until the dedication ceremony.

vain-vane-vein

- vain - conceited; self-centered.
- vain - unsuccessful.
- vane - a device used to determine the direction of the wind.
- vane - the wide, flat part of a feather.
- vane - a blade of a windmill.
- vein - a layer of minerals in the earth.
- vein - a blood vessel that carries blood to the heart.
- vein - a line of thought.

The prospector discovered a ____ of silver in the earth.

The speaker continued his discussion in a serious ____.

The business will continue to operate along the same ____.

The ____ on the bird's wing is bright red.

The movie star is a very vain ____ person.

Only a single ____ remained on the rusted windmill.

The nurse will draw blood from a ____ in your arm.

The ____ on the roof of the barn is pointing north.

Her many ____ attempts to pass the driver's test left her unhappy.

vary-very

- vary - to change something; to cause something to deviate.
- very - to a high degree.
- very - precise.
- very - mere.

The _____ idea of eating insects sickened him.

Janice has been _____ successful in her new job.

Each year the firm tries to _____ its marketing campaign.

His comments struck my _____ conscience.

My aunt bought the _____ dress I liked.

vice-vise

- vice - corruption; crime.
- vice - a moral or physical shortcoming, imperfection, or taint.
- vice - secondary; serving in the place of someone.
- vise - a device used to hold some object in place by means of a clamp.

Her only _____ is a weakness for chocolate.

The gangster was involved in all sorts of _____.

A _____ has many uses in carpentry.

His father was the _____-president of the poetry society.

wail-wale-whale

- wail - a mournful cry.
- wail - a prolonged expression of grief, sadness, or pain.
- wail - to utter a cry of grief or pain.
- wale - a raised rib in a piece of fabric.
- wale - a welt, usually on the surface of the skin.
- wale - to raise or mark the skin with welts.
- whale [L\\el] a large, ocean mammal that bears and suckles live young.
- whale - a person, event, or object massive or impressive in size or qualities.
- whale - to thrash someone.

That corduroy fabric comes in both a wide and narrow _____.
 The scratch by the tree branch left a long _____ on his arm.
 The forlorn _____ of the coyote was heard throughout the valley.
 The attackers continued to _____ the helpless man.
 The _____ of the mourners was terrible to hear.
 The blue _____ is the earth 's largest living creature.
 We heard the woman _____ from a distance.
 "Boy, that was a _____ of a concert!" commented Todd.
 "If you don 't behave, I'll _____ your behind!" threatened the upset mother.

waist-waste

- waist- the mid-section of a human torso between the ribs and the hips.
- waist - a short garment or part of a garment covering the body from the neck to the waist; a bodice.
- waste - debris; garbage.
- waste - scrap.
- waste - loss of body weight, tissue, or vigor.
- waste - sewage or excrement.
- waste - to ravage; to devastate.
- waste - to cause something to diminish in size, strength, or vitality.
- waste - to consume something carelessly; to allow something to be lost or discarded unused.

We must be careful not to _____ our precious natural resources.
 The waist of her gown was richly detailed.
 The city 's _____ is treated at a nearby sewage treatment plant.
 Scarlett O 'Hara boasted the tiniest _____ in three counties.
 Collect all of the _____ metal to be recycled.
 To see his _____ over a long period of time was very sad.
 The war continues to _____ the impoverished nation.
 All of this _____ must be hauled to the dump.
 We watched her enthusiasm slowly _____ away.

wait-weight

- wait - to remain in place in expectancy.
- wait -to delay or postpone.
- wait - to serve as a waitress or waiter.
- weight - a heavy object.
- weight - a burden or pressure.

The _____ of the difficult decision was almost unbearable.

- weight - a unit of mass or measure.
- weight- the relative value or importance given to something.
 - weight - to place heaviness or weight upon someone or something.
- weight - to impose a burden upon someone.

A _____ is needed to keep this drapery hanging straight.

I didn 't mean to _____ you down with all of my troubles.

Alex put some _____ in the back of his car to give added traction.

Let's _____ and see what happens next.

The _____ of this issue is very apparent to everyone involved.

_____ down those papers so they don 't blow away.

He decided to _____ for the rain to stop before dashing to the parking lot.

Greg has decided to _____ tables at the local pub for a summer job.

ware-wear-where

- ware - a manufactured commodity or article; merchandise.
- ware - pottery of fired clay.
- wear - to dress in or adorn oneself with articles of clothing.
- wear - to display or have an appearance of something.
- wear - to diminish or deteriorate through use.
- where - in, at, or to what place, position, or situation.
- where - wherever.
- where - locale or place.

Many tennis players now choose to _____ bright colored clothing.

No one is sure of the _____ - and why of the crime.

The carpeting by the front door is beginning to _____.
The cats tend to wander _____ they like.
The only _____ - that the company produces is transistor radios.
" _____ did you find such a deal ?" quizzed Ray.
_____ a look of confidence at your job interview.
After painting the ceramic _____, the artist must fire it again warn-worn

- warn - to alert, notify, or counsel someone.
- warn - to tell someone to go or leave.
- worn - the past participle of wear 'to dress in or adorn oneself with an article of clothing.'
- worn - the past participle of wear 'to display or have an appearance of something.'
- worn - the past participle of wear [away] 'to cause something to diminish or deteriorate.'

The referees had to _____ the disruptive players off the playing field.

Her illness has _____ - away her energy.
Doctors must _____ - their patients of the side effects of medication.
It seems he hasn't _____ a smile in weeks.
Have you _____ - that hat before ?

weak-week

- weak - lacking strength, vigor, or stamina.
- weak - deficient in mental or physical capabilities.
- weak - not based soundly on fact or logic.
- weak - lacking required or usual ingredients.
- weak - lame or ineffective.
- weak - barely sounded.
- week - a seven-day cycle or period.

They will be vacationing out East for a _____ in July.
He felt very _____ following his long illness.

This coffee tastes _____ and watery.
The evidence supporting that theory is _____.
The kitten uttered a _____ meow.
As she aged, my aunt's eyesight grew _____.
The boy offered a _____ excuse for his tardiness.

wet-whet

- wet - moist, damp.
- wet - containing liquid.
- wet - rainy.
- wet - permitting the manufacture and sale of alcoholic beverages.
- wet - all wrong. (Slang.)
- wet - to make something wet.
- wet - to urinate on or in something.
- whet - to sharpen something by rubbing on or with an object.

• whet - to make something sharp or more acute.

Yesterday was a _____ day.

A glass of wine before dinner will only _____ your appetite.

Harry was all _____-in his recollection of the accident.

You may _____ that knife on this special stone.

Hubbard County is one of the few _____ counties in the state.

This towel is soaking _____.

His shirt was _____ with sweat.

_____ - down the driveway to keep the dust from blowing around.

The child got so excited that she _____ her trousers.

which -witch

- which - what one or ones out of a group.
- which - a pronoun that introduces a clause.
- which - whichever.
- witch - a woman who practices witchcraft.

- witch - to bewitch someone or something.

_____ picture do you prefer?

Don 't try to _____ me with your black magic.

You may choose _____ you like best.

The woman who lived alone down by the creek was thought to be a _____.

The stolen items, _____h were thought to be lost forever, were finally located.

whine-wine

- whine - a plaintive, prolonged cry.
- whine - to cry in a forlorn or distressed way.
- whine - o complain in a manner resembling a whine.

• wine - a fermented, alcoholic beverage made from fruit or plants; something that intoxicates or makes heady.

• wine - a purplish-red color.

• wine - to drink wine.

The company likes to _____ and dine its new executives.

The _____ has a full, fruity flavor.

The constant _____ of the puppy upset the entire household.

The new house is decorated in colors of forest green and _____.

The baby continued to _____ - after getting an injection.

My sister is not one to _____ when things don 't go her way.

yoke-yolk

- yoke - a wooden frame worn over the necks of work animals.
- yoke Uok] some oppressive or restrictive bond, duty, or agency.
- yoke - a shaped and fitted piece of fabric that is part of the shoulders of a garment; the top portion of a skirt.

The dress had a smocked _____.

- yolk - the mass of yellow inside an egg.

I cracked open an egg that had a double _____-.

The team of oxen were joined by a _____

His impending court appearance was a _____ he did not look forward to.

Use the correct form of the words in the boxes to complete the sentences in each group A-H below. You may use some of the words more than once. In some cases, more than one word may be correct.

A job occupation work employment profession

1. People in the medical _____ work long hours.
2. In order to get a(n) _____ as a computer analyst, you need a degree in computer science.
3. Betty has been out of _____ since January
4. _____ agencies help people find work in their field.
5. I was asked to write my present _____ on the application form.

B task course duty

1. They were set the _____ of cleaning the room after the meeting
2. It is a nurse's _____ to make the patients feel comfortable.
3. Her marks are quite high, so she can choose between a medical or a law _____ at university.

C employer employee colleague assistant clerk office attendant

1. The shop _____ helped me choose a jumper that suited me.
2. The car park _____ is responsible for parking customer' cars.
3. All _____ are expected to be at work by 8.30. Our _____ insists on it.
4. Jill worked as a(n) _____ or a law firm before entering politics.
5. All my _____ at the office are friendly.
6. Bob is a senior _____ in the armed forces.

D party crew staff

1. A member of a political _____ gave a speech in the town centre last night.
2. The teaching _____ at our school have formed a basketball team
3. The search _____ had no luck in finding the missing child.
4. The ship's _____ served drinks as the ship set sail.

E aim goal intention challenge success ambition

1. The Maths problem was a(n) _____ and took me over an hour to solve.
2. The _____ of environmental organisations is to stop environmental destruction.
3. People with _____ will always try to achieve their _____.
4. Their first album was a great _____ and sold two million copies worldwide.
5. I have no _____ of changing my plans for tonight.

F achieve fulfil cope deal face succeed

1. John _____ in convincing his boss to give him the day off.
2. He doesn't _____ with crisis situations very well.
3. Despite his health problems, Joe _____ his ambition to play in the local football team.
4. The Johnstons are _____ financial difficulties after Mrs Johnston lost her job.
5. Kim put a lot of work into her project and _____ excellent results.

6. During his career as a teacher, he has _____ with students from different backgrounds.

G manage run operate undertake

1. You have to read the instructions carefully before you _____ the photocopying machine.
2. Brett couldn't find experienced staff so he _____ his business on his own for a few months.
3. Kate was supposed to _____ the training of the new staff.
4. The company is _____ by two people who share the responsibilities.

H skills qualities qualifications experience

1. To get the job you must have three years' _____ in telecommunications and the necessary _____, one of which is a university degree.
2. Leadership _____ are required by a Prime Minister, as well as communication _____.
3. Learning to windsurf was a fantastic _____!

Use the correct form of the words in the boxes to complete the sentences in each group A-G below. You may use some of the words more than once. In some cases, more than one word may be correct.

A look see watch notice regard stare glance observe

1. We spent weeks in Africa _____ the way lions catch their prey.
2. Did you _____ the tie he was wearing? It had pink elephants on it!
3. The students _____ the new teacher with curiosity.

4. Always _____ left and then right before crossing the road.
5. Don't _____ at people like that! It's really rude.
6. I _____ a great science fiction film last night.
7. Before I bought the magazine, I _____ through it quickly.
8. I couldn't help _____ the big red spots on his face.
9. Bill _____ at his watch and started running. He was late for school.

B find out invent discover detect

1. Many serious illnesses may be cured if they are _____ early enough.
2. "We must _____ as much as we can about the gang," said the detective.
3. Was it Captain Cook who _____ Australia?
4. The first camera, the Kodak 1, was _____ by G. Eastman in 1888.

C explore investigate look for look up
(do) research

1. The police came to _____ the murder immediately.
2. I still have _____ to do for my project on sharks.
3. I must _____ this word in the dictionary, because I don't remember what it means.
4. Mum, I'm _____ my trainers. Have you seen them?
5. As soon as the five friends got to the cave, they decided to _____ it

D attempt effort trial experiment

1. It takes a lot of _____ and patience to learn how to play a musical instrument.

2. John's case came to _____ and in the end he was found innocent.
3. The athlete failed in his last _____ to break the world record.
4. Many cosmetic companies claim they don't carry out _____ on animals.
5. I worked for the company for a(n) _____ period of two weeks before I was fully employed.

E audience spectators viewers sightseers onlookers witnesses

1. The _____ disagreed with the referee's decision and interrupted the football match.
2. The two teenagers claimed they were just _____ and had nothing to do with the fight.
3. Paris attracts thousands of _____ all year round.
4. At the end of the play, the _____ applauded enthusiastically.
5. The _____ were asked to give a detailed description of the accident.
6. The concert was broadcast on TV and attracted one billion _____ worldwide.

F memorise remind recall recognise

1. I didn't _____ her at first. She had changed a lot.
2. I had to _____ his phone number because I didn't have a pen to write it down.
3. I'll ring Dad to _____ him to buy coffee, otherwise he'll forget.
4. My grandfather can slit _____ scenes of World War II.

G view sight image vision scene

1. The sun affects my _____. when I'm driving, so I always wear sunglasses.
2. We have a superb _____ of the sea from our balcony.
3. The child started to cry at the _____ the dogs.
4. The television show was about the _____ you can visit in Rome.
5. The police arrived at the _____. of the accident within minutes.
6. An actor's _____ is important for his career.
7. I ran out of paint, so I couldn't finish the sky for the background _____ in the play.
8. When we were leaving the flower show, we were asked to fill in a questionnaire to give our _____ on what we had seen.

Use the correct form of the words in the boxes to complete the sentences in each group A-H below. You may use some of the words more than once. In some cases, more than one word may be correct.

A rise raise arise lift

1. Should the need _____ we'll order more food for the extra guests.
2. The charity organization _____ enough money to build a shelter for the refugees.
3. The sun _____ in the East and sets in the West.
4. We _____ at seven every weekday to get ready for school.
5. Can you _____ the table so that I can slide the rug underneath?

B grow grow up bring up (be) born become

1. In the last six months Joe has _____ taller by 15 centimetres.
2. When Brett was _____ he weighed 3.8 kilograms.
3. Most parents have fond memories of the years they were _____ their children.
4. When Jean _____, she wants to _____ a mechanical engineer.

C educate learn teach study read instruct

1. I always _____ a book just before I go to sleep.
2. John was _____ in France, so his French is very good.
3. Michelle works in the gym _____ people how to use the equipment properly.
4. In my final year I had to _____ at least four hours every day to _____ everything that was required for the exams.
5. I _____ Physics and Maths at the local high school.
6. The examiner _____ us to pick up our pens once we had _____ the questions carefully.

D behavior attitude temper mood manner manners

1. My parents had to see the headmaster because of my bad _____ in class.
2. After the argument, Jake was in a bad _____ and wouldn't speak to anyone.
3. If Betty wants to keep her job, she must change her _____ towards her boss

4. Where did you learn such excellent table _____?
5. The children like him because of his gentle _____.
6. Cliff is so calm that I have never seen him lose his _____
7. What you're saying should be done in a professional _____.

E familiar accustomed aware

1. I hope you're _____ of the dangers involved in rock climbing.
2. Is anyone in this classroom _____ with the word "incubator"?
3. That woman looks _____ to me. I'm sure I've seen her before.
4. Paul is feeling tired because he's not _____ to working for so long without a break.

F custom habit fashion trend routine

1. Going to work has become a daily _____ for most people.
2. The general _____ for men in the 1970s was to have long hair and sideburns.
3. In many countries it is the _____ to roast turkey for Christmas.
4. Sandra has the bad .._____ .of biting her nails.
5. Slightly flared trousers are in _____ this year so many people are wearing them.
6. If you go shopping, definitely go to Blare's. They've got all the latest _____.

G common ordinary usual normal regular

1. It is _____ to feel weak when you are ill, even if you've just got a _____ cold.

2. _____ exercise means working out for one hour at least twice a week.
3. It was a(n) _____ weekend. We went to the cinema on Saturday evening and for a drive on Sunday morning, as _____.
4. I get on very well with my friends because we have many things in _____.

H eager keen enthusiastic interested willing

1. I am _____ to help you with your homework if you make an effort.
2. He's really _____ on heavy metal music. That's all he listens to.
3. Please sit down as I'm _____ to start the meeting.
4. Billy is a(n) _____ tennis player, so he plays tennis every afternoon.
5. Sheila is _____ in taking up gardening this spring.
6. We were _____ about going to Ireland for Christmas.

Use the correct form of the words in the boxes to complete the sentences in each group A-H below. You may use some of the words more than once. In some cases, more than one word may be correct.

A travel transfer transport transmit

1. I need to _____ some money from my savings account to my current account.
2. My father usually _____ to work by car.
3. The goods were _____ to the United States.

4. The information is _____ by satellite throughout the world.
5. Jerry got _____ to Bristol and he is moving there next week.

B arrive get reach come approach appear

1. It took us a long time to _____ to the theatre but we. _____ in time for the first act.
2. The ocean liner _____ on the horizon and within two hours it had _____ the port.
3. Would you like to _____ to our house tonight?
4. I was _____ by a beggar asking for money.
5. We _____ at the village late at night.

C carry fetch deliver

1. Can you _____ that bottle from the top shelf?
2. Some supermarkets now arrange for your shopping to be _____ to your door.
3. I couldn't _____ the boxes by myself so I asked the shop assistant to bring them to my car.

D voyage journey trip tour excursion travel expedition cruise flight

1. Our class is going on a(n) _____ to the zoo tomorrow.
2. Joan kept a diary of her _____ through Europe.
3. Our _____ on the ocean liner lasted two weeks.
4. Many explorers have died on _____ to the Antarctic.
5. It's a nine-hour bus _____ from Melbourne to Sydney.

6. We went on a Mediterranean _____ for our honeymoon.
7. We were given a(n) _____ of the ancient castle as soon as we arrived.
8. Our _____ to Bangkok was delayed so our _____ to Asia was out off for a day.

E guide direct lead ride

1. I recently bought a bicycle to _____ to work. Surprisingly. I get there faster than when I used to drive my car there.
2. Could you please _____ me to the train station?
3. This road _____ to the castle at the top of the hill.
4. We were _____ around the museum and saw its most famous exhibits.
5. _____ the way. John, and we'll follow you.

F address road street way direction route path

1. You'll need a map to find your _____ around this city.
2. I need your new _____ so that I can keep in touch with you.
3. I'll find the _____ to your house by looking up the _____ in the directory.
4. We must follow the _____ Judy gave us, or we'll never find the _____ her house is on.
5. The hikers took the _____ that led to the castle.
6. They walked carefully through the woods following the _____.
7. We were up and ready at sunrise and headed in the _____ of the mountains.

G site position location point place room space

1. The _____ of the house is ideal, with the living _____ overlooking the bay/
2. To enter the building _____ you must wear a hard hat.
3. What _____ do you play in the school football team?
4. Do you live in a _____ of your own or do you still rent?
5. The starting _____ for the marathon is on the corner of Bell and Church Street.
6. He travelled to a lot of _____ while working as a flight attendant.
7. There wasn't enough _____ In the house for the children to play, so I told them to go outside.
8. It took us over half an hour to find a parking _____.

H foreign strange different peculiar curious

1. He's got a _____ accent; I can't understand which part of England he comes from.
2. According to astrologers. Aquarians are _____ people who want to know everything about everyone.
3. Melissa buys a _____ car every two years.
4. It's definitely an advantage to know a few _____.
5. There's a _____ smell coming from the kitchen. Is something burning?

Use the correct form of the words in the boxes to complete the sentences in each group A-I below. You may use some of the words more than once. In some cases, more than one word may be correct.

A borrow lend let hire rent

1. My friends and I _____ a car to travel around the island.
2. Can you _____ me some money? I'll pay you back on Friday.
3. Some of the rooms in the country house were _____ to tourists for the weekends.
4. I _____ money from the bank to buy a house.
5. My parents _____ a tutor to help me with Maths.
6. The first thing I did when I went to Crete was _____ a house by the sea.

B spend waste save afford

1. I have been _____ a lot of money lately on things I don't really need. I usually _____ all my income and don't _____ any money for a rainy day.
2. John _____ too much time on the computer and doesn't pay enough attention to his homework. Of course, he can't _____ to be _____ time, especially now that he's got exams.

C bill fare fee fine ticket receipt account discount tax

1. The _____ department expects all customers to get a _____ with every purchase they make, otherwise they will have to pay a(n) _____.
2. I had to complain to the telephone company about my extremely high phone _____ which I was not prepared to pay. In the end they gave me a(n) _____ and I paid less.
3. When he had his wallet stolen, he didn't have any money to pay for his bus _____.
4. I bought an airline _____ for Madrid with British Airways.
5. _____ is automatically withdrawn from my pay every month.

6. Most universities require that tuition _____ should be paid at the beginning of each academic year.
7. Sheila got a parking _____ for parking on the pavement.
8. My parents have a(n) _____ with the local shop and pay the amount they owe every month.

D salary wage payment income bonus allowance award reward donation

1. My _____ gets paid into my bank account every fortnight.
2. Steve's parents give him a weekly _____, which he can use any way he likes.
3. Some people give _____ to charity organisations.
4. Young workers under the age of 21 get the minimum _____ set by the law.
5. My _____ from my job isn't sufficient to cover my weekly expenses. Only when I get a(n) _____ as a(n) _____ for excellent results can I afford something special for myself.
6. Your car _____ are due on the 10th of each month.
7. I received a Young Achiever's _____ for getting the best exam score in the school.

E owe own possess keep belong

1. Who does this pen _____ to? If no one _____ It, then I'll _____ it.
2. Muhammad Ali _____ a lot of strength and speed in the ring.
3. They _____ their house, but still _____ some money to the bank.
4. He's _____ all his toys in a box in the attic.

F price prize charge value bargain worth tip

1. The National Lottery's main _____ was £2 million.
2. When eating out, it is advisable to leave a _____ for the waiter.
3. The thieves stole millions of dollars _____ of paintings from the gallery.
4. The _____ of our house has gone up since we renovated it.
5. That restaurant has very reasonable _____. It's certainly _____ for money and _____ visiting.
6. My new sofa was a real _____. I got it for half the price.
7. You can have the appliances delivered free of _____.

G precious valuable priceless worthless economic economical financial

1. Some of Picasso's paintings are _____. Only a billionaire could afford to buy them.
2. The police have been guarding the _____ stones on display at the gallery.
3. When Rose lost her job, she was in a difficult _____ situation for a while. It didn't help that she hadn't been _____ and not saved a penny while she was employed.
4. The country's _____ situation has improved ever since the development of the tourist industry.
5. Thank you for your _____ advice. You've helped me a great deal.
6. Julie gave away some of her fake jewellery because she thought it was _____ and just took up space.

H loan debt sum amount deposit instalment budge

1. We're on a tight _____ this month because we have many expenses. Our housing _____ and car _____ are due in the next few days.
2. He had parked illegally and was fined the _____ of £20.
3. Could you please tell me the exact _____ I owe?
4. Joan went to the bank because she wanted to make a(n) _____.
5. He has asked me to lend him money, as he is in _____.

I cheque cash coins currency
(bank)notes change

1. When we arrived in Indonesia, we exchanged some of our money for local _____.
2. I must take all the _____ I've received as _____ to the bank and exchange them for _____ which are lighter.
3. When paying by _____ always write your address and sign the back of it.
4. I'm paying-for the shoes in _____.

Use the correct form of the words in the boxes to complete the sentences in each group A-H below. You may use some of the words more than once. In some cases more than one word may be correct.

A think consider regard believe mean

1. Please _____ my offer and call me if you decide to sell.
2. I have been _____ of taking a holiday. I _____ I deserve it because I've worked hard all year.
3. The death penalty is _____ as a barbaric practice by most people.

4. I don't _____ he really _____ what he is saying, because he's usually joking.
5. I didn't _____ to offend you. Please _____ me.

B realize understand recognize meet introduce present appreciate

1. One day I'd like to _____ my favorite film star and get his autograph.
2. That's the journalist that _____ the evening news. Don't you _____ her?
3. The teacher didn't _____ that the students hadn't understood what he was saying.
4. Aren't you going to _____ me to your friend? I haven't _____ her before.
5. I _____ your help, but you must _____. that I want to do this on my own.

C assume guess suppose estimate calculate predict

1. Since I hadn't studied for the test. I had to _____ most of the answers.
2. We were _____ to play football today, but we cancelled it.
3. It's almost impossible to _____ what the future holds.
4. I _____ I'll be late for work, since there's so much traffic.
5. We had _____ the value of the house to be around 60.000 dollars but we hadn't _____ the cost of the renovation.

D idea view thought point aspect respect matter

1. She's very rude and has no _____ for anyone.
2. You should consider all _____ of his proposal, because he made some interesting _____.
3. In my _____ the education system should change.
4. I can't bear the _____ of going back to work after such a great holiday.
5. There's no _____ in talking to Clark about this problem, as he has no _____ about it.
6. As a(n) _____ of fact, I hired an interior decorator, who gave me some good _____.

E queue line aisle corridor hall row

1. The cornflakes are in the third _____, sir.
2. Walk down the _____ and the toilet is the third door on your right.
3. The entrance _____ to my flat is so small that it's a waste of space.
4. Please get in _____ and wait your turn, madam!
5. We were lucky enough to be given seats in the front _____ at the theatre.
6. There was such a long _____ in the bank that I couldn't be bothered to go in.

F available spare free convenient handy usable

1. When I bought my car, I got the air-conditioner _____ of charge. It really came in _____ during the summer.
2. Every car must have a(n) _____ tyre in the boot.
3. The Red Dog's new album is now _____ in music stores.

4. A laptop computer is very _____ because it is portable and _____ anywhere.
5. I'm _____ tomorrow evening. Would you like to go to the cinema?
6. A car is a very _____ means of transport compared to buses and trains.

G absence lack shortage loss

1. After the accident, my father suffered a gradual _____ of memory.
2. Vicky's _____ from work was noticed, so the boss rang her at home.
3. The _____ of rain created severe _____ of fresh fruit and vegetables.
4. There's a world _____ of energy and scientists are looking for alternative sources.
5. Although I liked living with my family. I was annoyed by the _____ of privacy.

H short scarce rare inadequate insufficient

1. As a botanist he specialises in _____ species of plants.
2. The book costs $ 21 and I'm _____ by one dollar. Could you lend me some money?
3. A(n) _____ supply of oxygen to the brain can prove lethal.
4. In many parts of the world water is _____.
5. Parking space in the city centre is _____ due to the _____ number of car parks.

Use the correct form of the words in the boxes to complete the sentences in each group A-I below. You may use some of the words more than once. In some cases more than one word may be correct.

A choose pick gather collect

1. Every spring the peaches are _____ from the trees and packed in boxes.
2. I have been _____ coins for the last five years. I have one coin that dates back to 1935.
3. We can _____ between getting a blue or a black car.
4. Many people _____ round the injured man to see how badly he was hurt.
5. The two captains had to _____ the players for their team.

B choice collection selection election variety option

1. I don't have a(n) _____ as you didn't give me any _____.
2. Every four years there is a general _____ and people vote for the party they prefer.
3. My stamp _____ consists of two thousand stamps.
4. Aspirin is the number one _____ for combating fever and pain.
5. The shop has ice cream in a(n) _____ of flavours.
6. John's _____ as captain of the team took us by surprise.

C consult advise suggest propose recommend

1. Would you _____ this restaurant or not?
2. If the chest pain continues, you must _____ a doctor.
3. I _____ we go to Malta for a week, unless you can _____ another destination.

- The doctor _____ me to take a few days off work due to a persistent illness.
- The government _____ making radical changes to the health system.

D tip clue advice information

- The FBI is still looking for _____ to help them catch the dangerous criminal.
- Take my _____ and see your bank manager if you're having financial problems.
- I need _____ regarding the polar bear for my project.
- Our teacher gave us some useful _____ on how to prepare for the exams.

E reliable responsible reasonable respectable

- I bought a television set, as I found the price very _____.
- At camp, each teacher was _____ for twenty students.
- Judges are considered _____ members of society.
- She's a very _____ person, so you can turn to her if you are having any problems.

F mention refer express comment report

- Most western economies are _____ to as "free markets".
- My manager asked me to _____
- The woman _____ her dissatisfaction to the builder for not having the house ready on time.
- The politician refused to _____ on the new tax laws.

5. The children didn't _____ anything about the trip until the last minute.
6. He _____ the theft of his briefcase to the police.

G announce inform confess introduce reveal publish

1. When the thief _____ to the robbery, he was officially charged with the crime.
2. The journalist refused to _____ her source, saying it was highly confidential.
3. The well known author _____ his new novel last week.
4. The finance minister _____ that there would be no wage increases for the following year.
5. The headmaster _____ the new teacher to the class.
6. If you lose your credit card, _____ the bank immediately.
7. The potato was _____ to Europe in 1565.

H ensure insure reassure make sure confirm

1. _____ you lock the windows before you go.
2. I had to ring the airline to _____ my flight 48 hours In advance.
3. You should _____ your car against fire and theft.
4. She _____ me that everything would go according to the plan.
5. The role of the judge is to _____ proper legal proceedings.

I agree accept admit approve

1. I don't _____ of people smoking In a doctor's waiting room.

2. I don't always _____ with Jessica, because we don't share the same views.
3. After being questioned, the student _____ that he had cheated in the test.
4. Children are warned not to _____ sweets from strangers.

Use the correct form of the words in the boxes to complete the sentences in each group A-I below. You may use some of the words more than once. In some cases, more than one word may be correct.

- A stop avoid forbid prohibit ban prevent escape
1. Smoking has been _____ in all public places.
 2. The examiner asked the students to _____ writing and put down their pens.
 3. The government has taken strict measures to _____ accidents on motorways.
 4. I take these pills to _____ getting seasick while travelling by boat.
 5. For reasons of hygiene, animals are _____ to enter hospitals.
 6. She tried to _____ her husband from informing the authorities.
 7. She was lucky to _____ a conviction for shoplifting.

- B blame accuse arrest charge convict sentence
1. The police _____ Mr Jones and _____ him with assault.
 2. Despite the student's protests, the teacher _____ her of cheating.

3. The man was _____ of murder and _____ to twenty years in prison.
4. Don't _____ us for the broken window, we weren't playing football this morning.

C complaint annoyance accusation disappointment

1. Much to our _____, we had to wait for over an hour to purchase the tickets.
2. Despite the media hype, the concert was a real _____.
3. I wish to make a(n) _____ about the quality of the food.
4. Don't make false _____ when you don't have proof.

D chase pursue hunt follow

1. A stray dog _____ me home today and I'm thinking of keeping it.
2. My brother and I used to _____ each other around the house when we were young.
3. Police have been _____ the terrorists for weeks now but still haven't found them.
4. He wanted to _____ a career in engineering.

E cause excuse reason purpose aim

1. John has to find a good _____ for being late, otherwise he'll get into trouble.
2. The _____ of the meeting is to discuss next year's plans. If you can't attend it, you must have a good _____, as the _____ is to get everybody's opinion.
3. The carelessness of the driver was the _____ of the fatal accident.

F rob steal burgle hijack deceive cheat lie shoplift blackmail

1. The criminal's innocent looks _____ people into trusting him.
2. Don't _____ to me. I know you weren't at school today!" shouted my mother.
3. Our house was _____ last night and all our valuables were _____.
4. Two terrorists _____ the plane and made the pilot change course.
5. The student tried to _____ during the test, but the teacher caught him and took away his paper.
6. As a teenager, Bob _____ from the local store and was even caught once.
7. Two men _____ the bank on Elm Street this morning.
8. Kim _____ John by demanding $1000 so that she wouldn't reveal his secret.

G attack knock hit beat blow strike

1. It's dangerous to _____ people on the head.
2. The child was _____ by a vicious dog and had to be taken to hospital.
3. She never - _____ on the door before entering.
4. Some football hooligans started to _____ each other after the match, so the police had to intervene.
5. He received a severe _____ on the head, which left him unconscious.
6. The church clock in the village square began to _____ ten.

H robber thief burglar kidnapper convict criminal pickpocket victim hostage

1. The _____ demanded one million dollars as ransom for the release of their _____.
2. A _____ snatched the old lady's handbag from her arm.
3. The _____ responsible for breaking into the flat next door have been caught.
4. The bank _____ escaped through the fire exit.
5. Most of the gang's _____ were old people living on their own.
6. The escaped _____ was caught within 24 hours.
7. When you travel, always be wary of _____ , who can steal your wallet without you realising it.
8. Jack the Stabber is one of the country's most wanted _____. It is said that he has murdered ten people.

I forget leave ignore neglect omit

1. I _____ to turn off the TV last night, so it was left on all night long.
2. It's cruel to _____ pets as they rely on their owners.
3. Why is Jill _____ Bill? Aren't they talking to each other anymore?
4. I don't want people to know I was involved in this project so _____ my name from the credits.
5. I've _____ the concert tickets upstairs. Could you get them?

References:

1. <https://dictionary.cambridge.org/grammar/british-grammar/easily-confused-words>
2. E. Moutsou. Use of English B2 for all exams. MMpublication. EU, 2009. – 184